Présentation

In the heart of the charming village of La Carneille, Jean-Pierre Manesse and Pascal Bourey have fitted out this family suite in a former post house. The house offers a very pretty walled garden on a castle mound and overlooks the square with the « halle au beurre » and its farmers market every 1st Sunday of each month.
Village house. Fully independent attic family suite on the 3rd floor: bedroom (double bed), bedroom (double bed), bedroom (3 single beds including 1 bunk), separate shower room and wc. Possibility of an extra bedroom on the ground floor (2 electric single beds) without opening to the outside: window overlooking the veranda converted into a living room with library. Summer kitchen on the ground floor available to guests. 850 m² enclosed garden with trees and flowers with terrace. Park crossed by the river and children's play area in low contract. Large interior porch for motorcycles or bicycles.
