Présentation

In the heart of the Suisse Normande, calm and restful setting under the apple trees in the middle of nature near the farm where Norman cows are raised in organic farming, cider and poultry. Numerous hiking and mountain bike trails.

The outdoor space is large enough for a good distance between the pitches.

Sanitary measures will be put in place in the sanitary block (limitation of the number of people at the same time, provision of disinfection and hand washing material after each passage in the premises, and other measures not yet defined to this day.
